

Future Improvement

- Extend searching flexibility of our application: adding more GT-places and more item categories, then displaying them as drop-down list on our application.
- Strength security of database: Separating the description of the lost item into public description and private description, to protect the private of users.
- Add interaction with dependent services: adding function to send e-mail or make a call when the user touch the contact information.